Developing Leadership Competence...Together!
Join the international MBA programmes of Berlin School of Economics and Law!

Studying in Berlin - The Berlin School of Economics and Law offers three full-time further training courses with a truly international focus and learning environment. Students are currently coming from more than 23 different countries. The programmes are taught solely in English.

The MBA European-Asian Management is distinguished by its global management perspective and special focus on the Asian-pacific economies as much as by its international group of students. This programme includes an integrated three-month company internship giving students the opportunity to utilize knowledge they have gained.

The MBA European Management is offered in cooperation with the London South Bank University (UK) and allows students to study in two European capitals. The programme centres on a study of the position of companies in the European business environment.

Both MBA programmes offer study visits to European countries as well as two jointly run study visits to Baltimore and Hong Kong with the chance to gain further insights into the management of multinational companies.
